The Greenville Rancheria provides Educational Assistance to tribal members who are enrolled in an accredited College/University or Certified Trade School. Members need to be enrolled in at least 6-12 units and must keep this minimum unit level throughout the semester. Recipients must maintain a 2.0 or higher Grade Point Average, have regular attendance and maintain a good academic standing. Failure to maintain these standards can result in Educational Assistance being withdrawn at any time during the semester.

All members are required to apply for other financial aid assistance available through their educational institutions. Educational Assistance will be distributed monthly on a 4-month payment plan which is listed below.

Applicant must provide copy of enrollment verification and class registration.
